Bent’s Old Fort, Colorado
March 5 - 20, 2015

Project Partner: National Park Service

Scope of Work: Students attended HistoriCorps’ Bent’s Old Fort Field School to learn about the basic tenets of adobe material – how it is made, applied, and maintained. Skill-building tasks included: removing failed adobe plaster, preparing adobe materials, making adobe bricks, and establishing proper drainage and grading.