History:

Listed on the National Register of Historic Places, the Forest Lodge complex is a Northwoods treasure that has been tended for more than a century by Crawford Livingston and his descendants. In 1999, thanks to Crawford Livingston’s granddaughter, Mary Griggs Burke, Forest Lodge was gifted to the American People to preserve and enjoy. Forest Lodge was added to the National Register of Historic Places in 2002, designating this noteworthy and inspirational early 20th century complex as an important historic landmark to the community and the State of Wisconsin. The complex is comprised of 16 buildings.

Project Location:

Forest Lodge is located on the southern shore of Lake Namakagon, Wisconsin, north of County Hwy M.
